3	Leibniz DAAD research fellowship (Postdoc) ライブニッツ - DAADリサーチフェローシップ				Leibniz-DAAD fellowships offer highly-qualified, international postdoctoral researchers, who have recently completed their doctoral studies, the opportunity to conduct research at the Leibniz institute of their choice in Germany. Leibniz-DAAD research fellows can undertake their research at the 91 Leibniz institutes.		https://www.daad.de/deutschland/stipendium/datenbank/en/21148-scholarship-database/?detail=54654913
4	Emmy-Noether-Program (DFG) ドイツ研究振興協会 (DFG) エミー・ネーター・プログラム		5 years (max. 6 years)	See "Type and Extent of Funding" (Webpage)	The Emmy Noether Programme provides an alternative path to professorship: It offers excellent researchers the opportunity to qualify for a scientific leadership role, particularly as a university teacher, by heading an independent junior research group.		http://www.dfg.de/en/research_funding/programmes/individual/emmy_noether/
5	Heisenberg-Program (DFG) ドイツ研究振興協会 (DFG) ハイゼンベルクプログラム		5 years	4450 EUR/month ・Travel costs ・Publication allowance ・Child care allowance	The Heisenberg Programme is directed primarily at those researchers who have qualified for professorship via the Emmy Noether Programme, DFG staff positions, private-sector research or non-faculty academic positions. The target group also includes junior professors who have received positive evaluations, those who have achieved their habilitation or equivalent, and German researchers returning from abroad, as well as appropriately qualified foreign researchers looking to pursue careers in Germany.		http://www.dfg.de/en/research_funding/programmes/individual/heisenberg/
6	DKFZ Postdoctoral Fellowships DKFZ (ドイツがんセンター)		Up to 2 yrs.		This program offers up to 10 fellowships per year and provides interdisciplinary training and research opportunities in state-of-the-art research facilities for excellent young scientists, no longer than 2 years past graduation, with a background in biology as well as in physics, mathematics, bioinformatics and other fields.		https://www.dkfz.de/en/postdoc-program/index.html

7	Boehringer Ingelheim Fonds (BIF) Travel Grant バーリンガーインゲルハイム	Basic research in biomedicine	PhD Fellowship 2 years Travel Grants Up to 3 months MD fellowship 10-12 months		In the PhD fellowship programme, we award long-term fellowships around the world, supporting some 120 outstanding junior researchers at the same time. The Travel Grants programme is geared to PhD students as well as postdoctoral fellows to enable their participation in short-term practical trainings and scientific courses (e.g. summer or winter schools). In both programmes, our foundation supports Europeans working in Europe and overseas, as well as students from overseas working in Europe. In the MD fellowship programme, we grant fellowships to medical students studying in Germany to help them pursue an ambitious experimental research project in basic biomedical research in Europe or overseas.	Application possible at any time	https://www.bifonds.de/homepage.html
8	Mercator Fellows メルカトル・フェローシップ (客員教授プログラム)				Fellowships enable intensive, long-term project-based collaboration between researchers from both domestic and foreign institutions. Although Mercator Fellows are on-site for only part of the project, they remain in contact with the project team members once their research stay is over. Foreign Mercator Fellowship holders are awarded the title of Mercator Fellows in recognition of their dedication.		http://www.dfg.de/en/research_funding/programmes/international_cooperation/mercator_fellows/
