

Student Exchange Programs: Fostering the Students' International Vision

Yu-Chen Hu

Vice Dean of International Affairs, National Tsing Hua University

No. 101, Sec. 2, Kuang Fu Rd.

Hsinchu, Taiwan 30013

Summary

National Tsing Hua university (NTHU) is a medium-size university with strong focus on research and teaching. To cultivate students with broad, international vision and build on students' leadership and communication skills, over the past years the University has strived to establish student exchange programs with foreign, sister universities and promote various activities to increase students' interactions to international students. This presentation will unveil how we do to enhance students' international vision.